

writer in residence

sponsored by the Canadian Authors Association - Alberta Branch

Although born in South Africa, Jannie Edwards is strongly rooted in Edmonton and the prairies. She has published poetry, reviews, short fiction and creative non-fiction. She has considerable editing experience in all genres. She taught creative writing, composition and literature at MacEwan University for over 25 years and has been lauded as an inspiring teacher and writing coach.

Jannie welcomes the opportunity to work with writers in all genres and at all stages of their writing journeys.

Submission Guidelines: 10-20 doublespaced pages of prose (fiction or non-fiction) or 3-6 poems.

JANNIE EDWARDS
WEDNESDAYS
FROM 12:00-1:30 PM

Jannie will be at Audreys from Sept. 21 through Dec. 14 and from Jan. 18 through April 25, 2012. Writers from the general public in the greater Edmonton area can drop off manuscripts at the store any time during the week for review. Jannie can be contacted at ewir@canauthorsalberta.ca to arrange a meeting or to receive material. She is available to meet in person, electronically or by telephone to discuss the work submitted.
